Heirs To The Top

Under the able direction of Miss Jones, Mrs. Whitmore and Mr. Rockwood, this class started off the year with rather hectic class elections. The final results were as follows: Michael Wilde, President; Robert Kelley, Vice President; Marion Graham, Secretary; and Rosemarie DeLutis, Treasurer.

Robert Kelley, "Red" Purrier, "Mac" Holding, "Pete" Richardson, Roy Nordberg, "Billy"Donlan, and Ernest May, participated in boys' sports; while Kay Ellen FitzRandolph, Joanne Burrell, Marion Graham, Claudia Miller, Patricia Fornaciari, Lucille Giovino, Lillian Goddard, Janet McGlashing and Joan Harlor took part in the girls' activities.

In December the Juniors held a Christmas Dance which was a great success. Now, there are thoughts of the Reception in the air. Some passing fancies would have it that changes are contemplated for the big dance, but in all probability things will follow their usual pattern.

We hope this up-and-coming class will not forget to work hard during its senior year—on school work as well as outside activities.

Sophomore Class

2nd row: J. Barre, E. Ricardo, B. Mathews, J. Agan, L. Gormley, C. Buratti, C. Troesh, M. Vallett, L. McKay, J. Fitzsimmons, G. Kirshkaln, M. Szabo, J. Fasulo, J. Searing, L. Giles, P. Lizotte, R. Nordberg, G. Huber, J. George, P. Paine.

Toward the Upper Crust!

Already accustomed to the hustle of the daily school program, this class was right at home upon its return in September. In closely contested elections, they voted for Edward Albertini, President; Daniel Palanza, Vice President; Carol Ferguson, Secretary; and Beverly Metrano, Treasurer.

In athletics, "Buzz" Richardson, "Danny" Palanza, Dennis Kaleta, William Leanues, Robert Bridges, John Zecher, and Phillip Webb show promise. Among the girls, too, there are quite a few who are bound to maintain the school's good name in sports.

Scholastic averages among the members of this class are quite high and promise great futures for some of them.

In February, this class, to celebrate and to take advantage of a woman's right during leap year, held a "Sadie Hawkins Dance" which was enjoyed by all who attended.

We hope that they will be happy and successful both during and after their high school years.

Freshman Class

1st row, l. to r.: E. Marcheselli, E. Nesbitt, L. Schultz, J. Agan, J. Scialoia, J. Clark, J. Ferri, J. Wills, M. Morini, T. Walker, A. DiMaggio, M. Clark, S. White, A. Long, B. DeChellis, G. Ricci.

2nd row: L. Prophet, M. Dunham, M. Thayer, B. Jones, J. Burrell, N. Devine, J. Pomfret, M. Brown, S. Shepardson, D. Codding, E. Thompson, E. Fales, C. Briggs, H. Carr, S. Pasquariello, S. Ohle, J. Costanza, M. Novak, A. Long, D. Manson, J. MacVicar, J. Martin, M. Wagner, M. Smith, B. Dunne, J. Guild, R. Shribman.

3rd row: F. Reed, T. Foster, R. Collins, J. Evans, J. Guild, R. Thomas, D. Lovely, G. Carr, W. Maxwell, G. Thibault, C. Miller, J. Mitchell, R. Chavaree, R. Griswold, A. Guerrini.

4th row: R. Waters, advisor; D. May, P. Sabin, D. Fagan, R. Learch, H. Carine, D. Dustin, K. Hele, G. Weber, C. Farley, R. Travers, H. Olney, B. Jackson, L. Belli, R. Brackett, R. Maloon, D. Brown, J. Gordon, W. Gormley, W. Lyman, advisor.

5th row: R. Bellavance, R. Nordberg, P. DiMonte, R. Shaw, S. Falconi, R. O'Malley, K. Jackson, W. Buck, J. Galanti, D. Ferguson, F. Murphy, M. Ross, D. Flynn, W. Eastman, W. Todesco, R. Galanti.

They Come In Numbers!

This group, the largest the school has ever seen, entered quite confused in September. However, they soon became used to new teachers, classes and surroundings, and settled down to work under the careful guidance of Miss Lyman and Mr. Waters.

The election of class officers left Mario Morini, President; Joanne Wills, Vice President; Thelma Walker, Secretary; and Jeanette Ferri, Treasurer. It might be well worth the research to look back into the books and see how far back in the school's history it has been since a girl was elected vice president. This class may be creating a precedent.

"Sonny" Guerrini, Kevin Jackson, "Ricky" O'Malley, William Maxwell, "Fessey" Olney, "Sibby" Falconi, "Butch" Murphy, William Eastman, "Bob" Thomas, William Todesco, Mario Morini and "Butch" Ross were all active along athletic lines.

Quite a few Freshmen must also be proud to take home their report cards, judging from those we have seen. We hope that this class will keep up its good work during its next three years in M. H. S.

1952 Class Highlights

During the year, much has been done to make classes and school life more enjoyable for the students. In National Education Week the High School, as well as the rest of the schools in Mansfield, held "open house" and invited parents and friends to come and attend special exercises or see the regular work of the school at hours convenient for visitors. Every class did something for the exhibition. Pupils made booklets and outlines of what they were studying. Some of the more talented people drew posters, pictures, or maps. A special program was prepared for visitors. The Glee Clubs sang, all the class rooms were open for inspection, and students demonstrated work.

The Student Council, a recent innovation in the school, has done much to increase understanding between the faculty and the student body. Since National Education Week the Student Council has inaugurated a program entitled "Operation Morale," on the principle that people work better in clean, neat surroundings than they do under unpleasant circumstances.

Room 14 has been painted and set up as an art room, so that art students no longer have to run over to Memorial Hall to exercise their creative powers. In Room 4, murals have been painted on the walls above the blackboards.

A contest with a surprise trophy has inspired many other students to keep their classrooms clean. Every month there is an inspection of homerooms and the cleanest room wins the prize. Woe to the student who forgets to take the papers out of his desk, and also to the one who leaves the spoils of his forbidden classroom feasts in someone else's desk and gets caught! Mottoes, posters, and poems have appeared in almost every room. An example of this is in Room 1 where there appears this verse:

No spring training
No world series
No spring cleaning
No trophy

Our hats are off to the Juniors in Miss Shepard's room who, by hard work, won the first trophy. The trophy? Oh come now—I'm sure you've all seen that handsome stuffed horse in Room 3.

In the second inspection Miss Lyman's freshmen in Room 1 came out on top. No one knows who will win the next contest, but one thing is certain; the winners will definitely have to do a bang-up job to do better than the previous winners.

STAMP CLUB

2nd row: E. Robinson, advisor; R. Moore, T. Wuschke, J. Forrester, R. Linari, D. Forrester.

The members of the Stamp Club, headed by Mr. Robinson, have made a collection of all the new stamps and those with notable backgrounds. At different meetings they have engaged speakers and seen movies.

The Tatler

1st. row, l. to r.: M. Morini, B. Metrano, M. Morini, L. Risgin, C. Nelson, editor-in-chief; C. Miller, P. Tartaglia, B. Kelly, R. Shribman, E. Albertini.

2nd row: C. Lovely, M. Hannon, advisor; L. Reilly, G. Chapman, E. Giles, G. Bacchiocchi, E. O'Keefe, W. Briggs, R. Kelley, L. Tessier, T. Walker, J. Palanza, O. Patrignani, J. Gallipeau.

3rd row: N. Shea, J. Guild, A. Morrison, S. Buratti, M. Graham, L. Ballou, B. Howe, M. Dill, P. Whitehouse, S. Murphy.

4th row: G. Dunn, J. Harlor, S. Shepardson, M. McCarthy, E. Conrod, J. George, J. Annese, N. Halloran.

The Tatler Staff, with the help of Miss Hannon, has been prompt and efficient in editing our school newspaper. This year, The Tatler has several new feature columns including,— "The Famous Men and Women", and the "Fashion Column". Of course, the "Gadabout" is still the most widely read page of the paper.

The Editor-in-chief is Carol Nelson and her assistants include: "Mickey" Morini, Claudia Miller, and Beverly Metrano. The feature-editors are Linard Risgin, Lillian Ballou, Brenda Kelly, and Ruth Shribman. The Sports editor is Eddy Albertini and his assistants are Bob Kelley and Shirlie Buratti. Phyllis Tartaglia has also shown her talent on another new feature, the cartoon page.

I guess we'll always remember the days The Tatler came out!

Driver Education

1st row, l. to r.: C. Lovely, O. Patrignani, P. Wellman, C. Miller, N. Halloran, D. Rossi, B. Mei, R. Delfino.

2nd row: W. Chapman, C. Anderson, P. Tartaglia, C. Rego, P. Murphy, M. Morini, J. Murphy, M. Dill, S. Murphy, N. Shea, J. Fowler, C. Miller, E. Ward, E. Henchel, advisor; J. Houghton, W. O'Hare.

3rd row: F. Weber, J. Palanza, G. Martin, J. Cipriani, R. Miller, J. Morse, B. Brown, K. FitzRandolph, P. Ross.

This program was initiated at the Mansfield High School in 1950. Up to this time, approximately 67 students have followed this course, which now is offered to seniors and juniors over 16 years of age.

These people have to attend a class once a week for twenty weeks and then go out for supervised road work until the instructor finds them ready for exams. The students then take the regular Registry written and road tests given by inspectors from Fall River, and become eligible for a driver's license. To this point, success is 100%, for all students trying have passed.

Miss Henchel takes one small group right through until licenses are issued. There are, therefore, no more than four or five applicants at any one time. But this method is the main reason for the good showing in exams.

The bulk of the group is female as the girls have less chances to be taught early. Boys, usually, get right out and get their licenses on their sixteenth birthday. Somehow, they manage to learn before then.

The cars for training have been furnished by Pedini Motors.

It seems that this popular course is at M. H. S. to stay.

Girls' Glee Club

1st row, l. to r.: J. Gallipeau, B. Nesbitt, L. Prophet, J. Clark, B. DeChellis, R. DeLutis, H. Carr, R. Miller, P. Tartaglia, L. McKay, M. Wagner, G. Ricci, S. White, P. Wellman, E. Marcheselli, C. Mondillo.

2nd row: M. Clark, Alice Long, M. Smith, J. Scialoia, P. Jacques, G. Chapman, R. Shribman, B. Mathews, J. Annese, E. Smith, E. Ricardo, N. Halloran, B. Dunne, M. Dunham, C. Ferguson, A. DiMaggio, E. Ward, L. Reilly, D. Ferry, director.

3rd row: S. Giles, E. Giles, G. Martin, M. Novak, M. Brown, N. Devine, B. Metrano, D. Manson, C. Buratti, L. Giles, J. Costanza, S. Shepardson, T. Walker, M. Morini, E. Conrod, C. Rego.

The Girls' Glee Club under the new direction of Miss Dorothy Ferry has been, as formally, one of our most active organizations. The Club has also increased considerably in number again this year.

According to tradition, the members were responsible for the very impressive Christmas Assembly, getting assistance from the Boys' Glee Club.

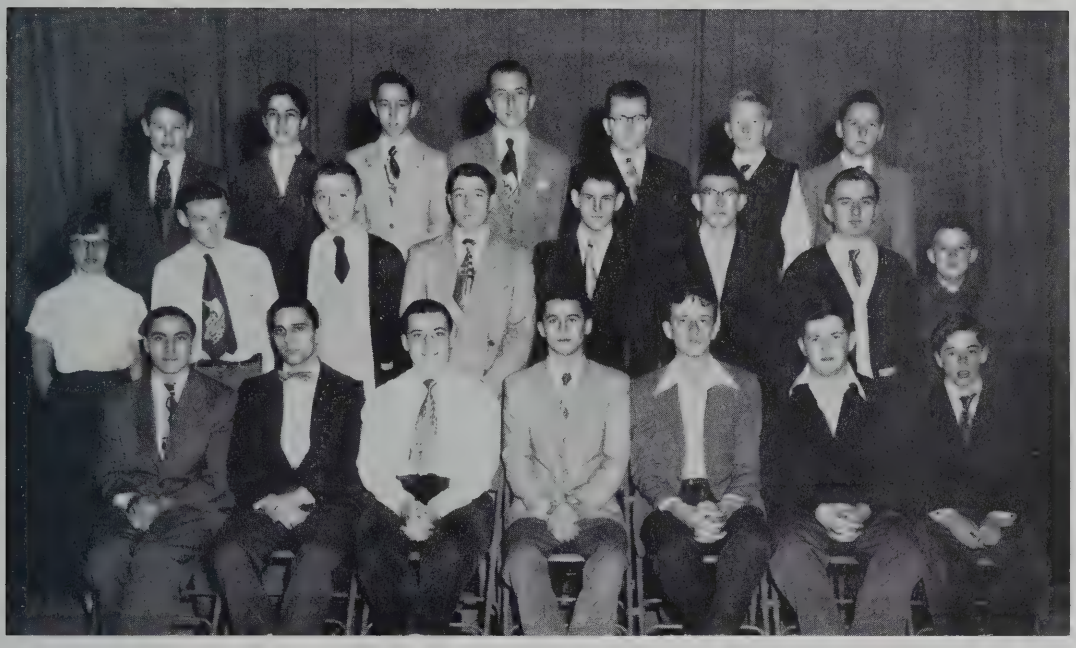
Some of the club members were accepted this year for participation in the New England Music Festival which was held in New Britain, Connecticut. Those attending this four day music experience were "Betty" Giles, "Shirlie" Buratti and "Cathy" Rego.

The members of the entire Glee Club will participate in the Pop's Concert to be held in the Town Hall on March 28.

The girls are also looking forward to the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival which is to take place in Middleboro, early in the month of May.

Good luck girls and keep up the sweet harmony.

Boys' Glee Club



1st row, l. to r.: R. Menga, R. Leavitt, W. Eastman, S. Bryant, M. Wilde, K. Guillette, B. Jackson.

2nd row: S. Giles, acc.; D. Flynn, D. Ferguson, R. Shaw, E. May, J. Breen, G. Carr, R. Brackett.

3rd row: D. Dustin, M. Morini, R. Bellavance, J. Zecher, F. Reed, K. Hele, R. Griswold.

Interest in singing among the boys is just beginning to find favor in the High School. But it is expected to grow in time, and some day, the boys may prove as active as the now very popular girls' club.

Till now, a small nucleus of enthusiasts have kept this organization on the school map, and there is hope that the same spirit will be transferred to the newcomers so that the singers may continue to grow in numbers and quality.

Mr. James Gallo is now in charge of this club. Stanley Bryant is president, Michael Wilde is secretary-treasurer, Kenneth Guillette is librarian and William Eastman is assistant-librarian. At the Christmas Assembly, they joined the girls in presenting a very agreeable program at the Town Hall. The combined group also sang at a P.T.A. meeting.

The main feature at present is the organization of a boys' singing club at the Central School, under the supervision of Mr. Harold Qualters, in view of promoting added interest in music. If this innovation is maintained for any length of time we have every right to expect that the boys' program will improve considerably within a few years.

Pan-American Club

Supervised by Miss Shepard, the Pan-American Club has undertaken many small projects during the past months. The members have shown a great desire to know and understand our South American neighbors.

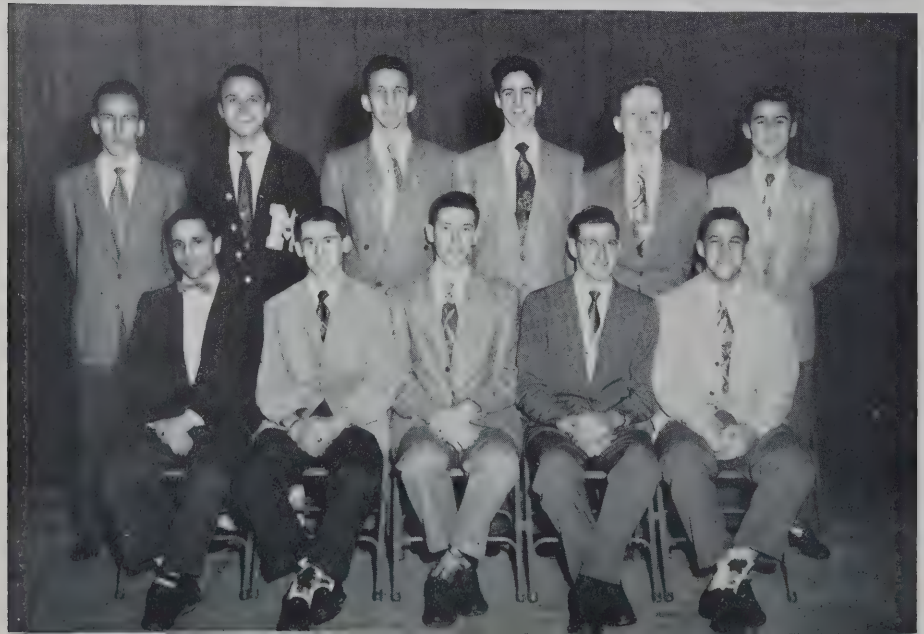
2nd row: J. Nordberg, P. Paine, R. Leavitt, A. Shepard, advisor; J. Hansen, P. Fornaciari, J. George.

Civics Club

This all-freshmen club has been very active. Visits were made to the Fire and Police Departments, special reports were made, plays and panel discussions were held. Miss Margaret Welch is in charge of the club.

1st row, l. to r.: R. Shribman, D. Dustin, T. Foster, D. Ferguson, C. Briggs, E. Marcheselli, J. Ferri, J. Agan.
2nd row: M. Welch, advisor; J. Burrell, T. Walker, J. MacVicar, D. Codding, E. Fales, J. Guild, M. Thayer, B. Dunne.
3rd row: D. Brown, J. Martin, E. Thompson, R. Thomas, S. Ohle, M. Morini, L. Belli.



Chemistry Club

The Chemistry Club, one of our most progressive new clubs, was organized by the members of the Chemistry Class under the supervision of Mr. Connors. The club has sponsored several field trips as well as special projects with interesting and educational results.

1st row, l. to r.: R. Leavitt, E. Mason, W. Briggs, L. Risgin, W. Engler.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders have been their usual active self in '52. All the wonderful traditions have been maintained and, if anything, their technique seems to get better all the time, Congratulations to as fine a group as we have seen in a long time.

l. to r.: R. DeLutis, G. Dunn, J. Palanza, N. Pellegrini, C. Rego, M. Morini, C. Miller, S. Buratti.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatics Club, under the direction of Miss Walsh, is the first of its kind for several years. Its members have been concentrating primarily on a one hour weekly program over WARA, which has proved most successful.

2nd row: G. Dunn, M. McCarthy, C. Buratti, A. Morrison, E. Bauer, J. Costanza, S. Ohle, B. Barrett, C. Briggs, C. Nelson, B. Howe, M. Brown, M. Novak, P. Reynolds, P. Whitehouse, P. Tartaglia, C. Walsh, advisor.
3rd row: J. Guild, J. Burrell, M. Morini, J. Annese, J. Harlor, J. Searing, C. Troesh, L. Giles, J. Fasulo, J. Vallett, R. Nordberg, B. Metrano, E. Conrod, J. MacVicar.
4th row: J. Baer, B. Kelly, E. Ricardo, G. Chapman, B. Mathews, J. Barre, E. Smith, B. Dunne, P. Jacques, C. Ferguson, J. Agan.

Varsity Club

The Varsity Club, under the direction of Coach Waters, has shown much progress throughout the year. The senior lettermen have entertained the student body with a couple of basketball games and a record hop held on January 12 featuring Fred B. Cole.

Seated, l. to r.: R. Waters, coach; R. Baptiste, W. Bruno, C. Anderson.

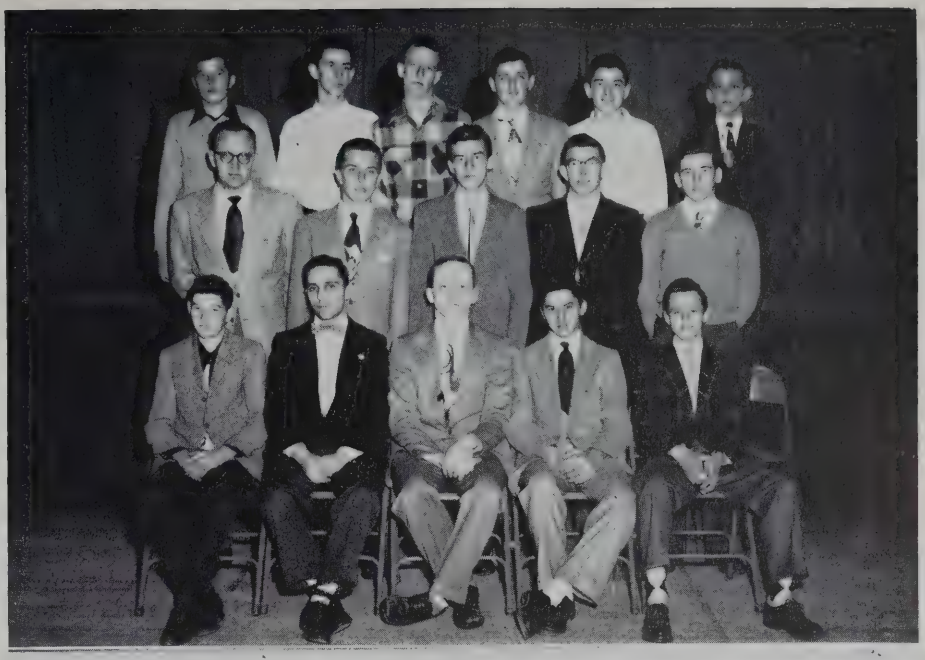
Weather Club

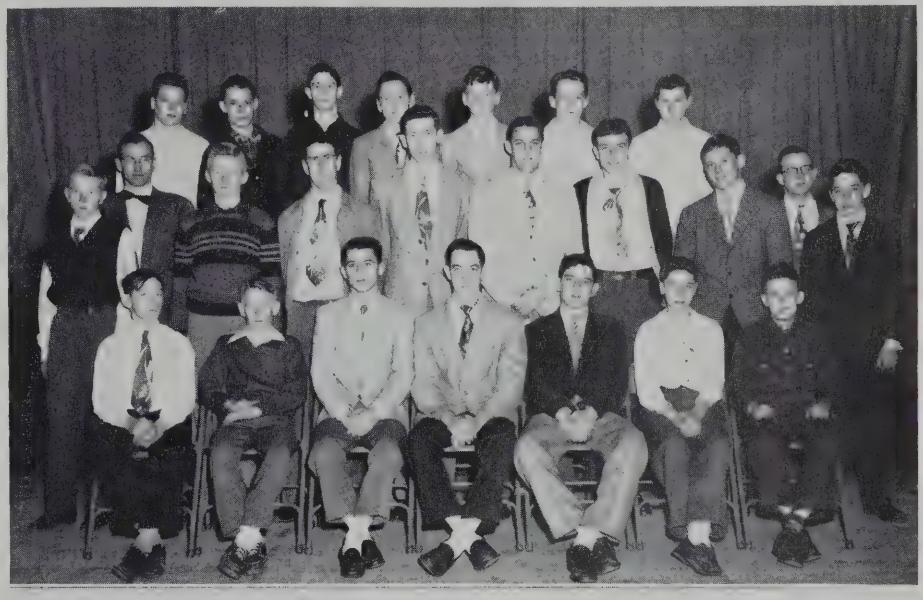
The Weather Club was organized by Dr. Larson to instruct the members in the use of weather forecasting techniques and instruments. The club took a trip to Squantum Air Base and held an exhibit.



1st row, l. to r.: D. Tibbetts, R. Leavitt, J. Horton, R. Albertini, H. Olney.
2nd row: K. Larson, advisor; J. Zecher, H. Fiske, J. Breen, L. King.
3rd row: W. Maxwell, J. Evans, K. Jackson, D. Lovely, G. Thibault, J. Evans.

Aeronautics Club

The Aeronautics Club was formed under the supervision of Mr. Rockwood. The members construct and criticize airplane models and plot navigation courses. They also inspected Squantum Air Base and held a model airplane exhibit.



1st row, l. to r.: P. Malone, P. Sabin, S. Bryant, J. Houghton, E. Garriepy, D. Brown, R. Brackett.
2nd row: K. Hele, C. Rockwood, advisor; M. Ross, J. Knight, W. Briggs, W. Engler, J. McPherson, R. Thomas, F. Ienello, advisor; B. Jackson.
3rd row: W. Johnson, T. Foster, W. Todesco, R. Griswold, G. Weber, A. Hodson, R. Morse.

Projector Operators' Club

The members of the Projector Operators' Club supervised by Miss Henchel, have been training for the operation of the movie projector and tape recorder. As a result, we now have a sufficient number of properly informed boys to show movies each period for the subject teachers.

2nd row: W. Bruno, G. Weber, P. Webb, R. McGlashing, R. Bellavance, R. Chavaree, M. Morini, D. Tibbetts, W. Todesco, J. Cuneo, D. Palanza, E. Henchel, advisor.
3rd row: J. Evans, D. Lovely, J. Horton, R. Leavitt, G. Bacchiocchi, S. Bryant, J. Zecher, G. Carr, E. Thibault, C. Miller.
4th row: P. MacLachlan, K. Guillette, D. Titus, J. Knight, W. Engler, W. Briggs, D. Kaleta, C. Anderson, W. Kirshkaln, W. Hewes, E. O'Keefe, R. Kelley.

Class Play

Standing: J. Annese (Therese Brown), S. Buratti (Gus Gustavesky), L. Tessier (Lillian Wood), W. Briggs (Ted Wood), B. Barrett (Grace Schoenbeck), C. Rego (Walola Breckenridge), M. Morini (Amelia Dennis), R. Spaulding (Horatio P. Honeywell), P. Murphy (Caroline Blakesly).

Miss Nancy Halverson, director of dramatics at Wheaton College, was in charge of organizing and directing the play. All the usual headaches accompanied the preparation:— "many called but few chosen . . . "; stage and property ordeals in obtaining scenery and materials; disappointment in rehearsals and work; apprehensions of the coming "opening night," etc.

It did turn out, however, that fears were unfounded, and on the nights of February 14 and 15, "The Little Dog Laughed" became another local stage hit, with most of the actors meeting their first challenge behind the footlights with a creditable performance.

An estimated total of approximately eight hundred people, who witnessed the play, helped make it a financial success. And, furthermore, general comments from the audience showed reactions to be both favorable and pleasant.

Although many memories of school and campus fade away rapidly after graduation, the scenes and thoughts of the class play will linger on for a long time to come.

The Band

Members from the High School participating in the music program: D. Brown, H. Carr, J. Fasulo, P. Jacques, Alice Long, Arlene Long, C. Mondillo, E. Nesbitt, J. Pomfret, E. Ricardo, E. Thompson, J. Gallo, director.

Music is finally coming into its own in Mansfield. This year, Mr. James L. Gallo has taken over a full-time program in the school system. Mr. Gallo came here with two and a half years of part-time teaching of instrumental music at Lynn. He possesses a Bachelor's degree in music and is now working toward a Master's degree.

His interest in music seems limitless. He is trumpeter in the 215th Army Ground Forces Band of Boston, a well-known outfit here since the successful March concert and dance at the Town Hall. He is also music director of The Old Dorchester Drum Corps (American Legion), The St. Kevin's C. Y. O. Drum Corps from Dorchester, and The Daurice Drum Corps in Hyde Park.

But now, his main ambition lies in fashioning accomplished musicians among the eighty or more youngsters under his care, and we must admit that prospects of gleaming success have never been better. Interest in instrumental music is attaining a peak that should assure Mansfield a good band within the next few years. And if the job can be done, we believe Mr. Gallo will be able to do it. Best of luck to both the director and the musicians!

The 1951 edition of the Green Hornets, under the new coach, Bob Waters, rolled up an impressive record of five wins, two ties, and two losses. Despite the fact that ten lettermen were lost through graduation this proved to be one of the best teams of recent years.

In the opener at Somerset the boys were a little green, and could not get rolling. Somerset was much the same, and the game wound up a scoreless tie.

Our next game, at Franklin, saw us break into the win column, but the game was hard-fought all the way. In fact, had it not been for Sonny Guerrini's sixty yard pass interception, it might well have ended as a 7 to 7 tie, instead of a 13 to 7 win for the Hornets.

Back in Mansfield for our first game at Memorial Park, we soundly trounced a weak Case team, 33 to 6.

The next Saturday Oliver Ames came to the park and fought the Hornets to a bitterly contested 0 to 0 tie. The unsung mudhorses of the line were superb, stopping Oliver Ames short three times on the goal line.

We got back into swing, though, as we met, and rolled over, a weak Bridgewater team, 27 to 0. This was the Hornets thirteenth consecutive game without a loss.

Thirteen proved to be an unlucky number, however, for the following week the Hornets were stopped by a tough Dighton team. They played their hearts out for three periods, but finally ran out of gas as the Class D Champions went on to win 20 to 0.

The game was rained out the next Saturday, so the Red Rocketeers of North Attleboro came to the park Tuesday. We came out on top, 13 to 0, in a tussle so close it could have gone either way.

With only four days rest, the Hornets journeyed to Ashland. Practically dead on their feet after the Tuesday pounding, they could do nothing right as Ashland poured it on, 27 to 2. Our lone two points came on a safety by Captain Reed.

Thanksgiving morning nine seniors played their last game for M. H. S., and went out in a blaze of glory, beating the arch-rival, Foxboro. The first half was evenly matched, at 7-all, but in the second half the Hornets outplayed the opposition 3 to 1 and the game ended with a final score of 25 to 14.

FIRST TEAM

Coach Bob Waters proved to be a wizard of the basketball court, as well as the gridiron. All five of the '51 regulars graduated last year, but Coach Waters turned out a team that made an 11-5 record, took third place in the Hockamock League, and reached the second round of the South Shore Tourney. Three men, Johnny DePalma, Binky Anderson, and Mac Holding were the only regulars, while the other two spots were shared by Linc Musto, Red Purrier, Bob Kelly, and Rick O'Malley.

The Hornets started the season by beating the favored Alumni 43-42 in overtime, but then dropped their first Hockamock contest to Sharon. They then beat North, but lost a heartbreaker to Foxboro, 45-47, before getting into step again to win their next three.

Stoughton and Sharon took the following two (they were the only two teams to consistently beat the Hornets, accounting for five out of six of the Hornets' losses), but Mansfield won the next five, including a sound 65-54 shellacking of Foxboro. In an unofficial post-season rubber game the Hornets again beat Foxboro. Stoughton won their second game with Mansfield to wind up Hockamock League play.

The Hornets then entered the South Shore Tourney, and defeated Abington in the first round. They were then eliminated in the second by Sharon.

The season was marked by fine play and polished ball handling, unusual for a green team. Though this was supposed to have been a building season, future teams will really have to work to beat the '52 Hornets' record.

Track

3rd row: D. Lovely, R. Bellavance, R. Shaw, R. Thomas, P. Fournier, H. Bolin, F. Murphy, W. Todesco, D. Forrester.

This year's track team is a mystery at present. Captain Red Purrier and Gene Fournier are the only veterans to show up so far, so Coach Mazukina will probably have to build a team from scratch.

However, every spring history repeats itself, and it looks like the Hornets are out in left field some place, but by the time the South Shore Meet rolls around Mansfield seems to have discovered enough talent to take first place honors. Here's hoping the '52 squad will maintain the tradition.

The tentative schedule calls for meets with Foxboro, Bridgewater, North Easton, Concord, Taunton, and Walpole, besides the Hockamock and South Shore Meets.

MANSFIELD

Baseball

As this goes to press, baseball practice is just starting. Naturally, it is difficult to say what the season will bring, but things look good for the Hornets. Coach Waters is building his team around four veterans, Binky Anderson, Bob Kelley, Willie Bruno, and Buzz Richardson. Also, three rookies, Sonny Guerrini, Rick O'Malley, and Kevin Jackson, show promise and will probably make the team this year.

The Hornets' Hockamock League schedule calls for games with Randolph, North Attleboro, Sharon, Stoughton, Foxboro, Canton, and North Easton.

Girls' Basketball

1st row, l. to r.: M. Graham, C. Miller, G. Dunn, J. Agan, N. Pellegrini, J. Burrell.
2nd row: R. Delfino, P. Murphy, P. Fornaciari, K. FitzRandolph, J. Fasulo, L. Goddard, N. Halloran, B. Thorner, coach.

SECOND TEAM

2nd row: P. Murphy, B. Thorner, coach; C. Rego, J. McGlashing, J. Martin, D. Codding, B. Metrano, J. George, P. Ross, D. Rossi, N. Halloran, R. Delfino.

THE GREEN HORNETTES

Most of the credit for the very good record of seven and four is due to Miss Barbara Thorner, who did an excellent job of coaching the Green Hornettes for her first year. Splendid teamwork, new plays, and firm, effective guarding also contributed to the successful season.

Those who rolled up the score for the team by their "sharp-shooting" were "Glo" Dunn, Co-captain, Kay Ellen FitzRandolph, "Nee" Pellegrini, "Lil" Goddard, and Joanne Burrell. Guarding the opposing team were Joyce Agan, Co-captain, "Meg" Graham, Claudia Miller, Jeanette Fasulo, and "Patty" Fornaciari.

High scorer for the 1952 season was Kay "Tex" FitzRandolph.

JUNIOR VARSITY

In spite of their good spirit and continued efforts, the Junior Varsity ended their season with a 1-1-6 record.

The team consisted of: Forwards: "Duffy" Codding, Louise McKay, "Cathy" Rego, "Mickey" Morini, "Patty" Whitehouse, "Nancy" Spaulding, "Lu" Giovino, "Joannie" Harlor, and Dolores Rossi. Guards: "Bev" Metrano, Janet Martin, "Judy" George, "Pris" Ross, Janet McGlashing, "Jackie" Agan, and "Betty" Ricardo.

Keep up the spirit girls and we know next season will be a much better one.

Class History

Carole Lovely

In September, 1948, a hopeful but slightly self-conscious group of eighty freshmen entered the Mansfield High School. Unceremoniously we were herded into one big room—now rooms 5A and 5B—and told by Mr. Whitcomb in no uncertain terms what was expected of us. For days we wandered around the halls asking such questions as "Where is Room 6?" and "Where do we eat lunch?" Further confusion came by the use of "wrong" entrances.

Finally our advisors, Miss Darmedy and Miss Henchel, took us in hand and helped us elect our class officers. Warren Reed was chosen president; Binky Anderson, vice president; Mickey Morini, treasurer; and Cathy Rego, secretary.

Our first dance was held on April 29 in the gym. The bright cotton skirts serving as lamp shades made a lasting impression on everyone. On June 20 we attended our first Class Day exercises and had the privilege of singing in wavering tones the famous "Where, Oh Where."

Being veterans of one year, we felt quite superior to the freshmen when we returned in September. At an early election Warren Reed was chosen president again; Earl Mason, vice president; Jean Palanza, secretary, and Patty Whitehouse, treasurer.

We held our first dance, the "Sweater Social," on December 9 in the gym. Everyone turned out in good form. A second dance was held in May. Everyone anxiously awaited the crowning of the king and queen chosen by the student body.

In June, after many arguments and much persuasion, we finally ordered our class rings. Once again we attended the Class Day exercises. Incidentally, we sang "Where, Oh Where" much better this year.

Before we realized it, September had come again. Our first task as Jolly Juniors was the election of class officers. After much active campaigning by the respective candidates, we finally chose Dave Holt president; Earl Mason, vice president; Mickey Morini, secretary; and Patty Whitehouse, treasurer. We really began to feel like Juniors when our long-awaited class rings arrived in November, and we could proudly display them to our envious underclassmen.

The first dance of the year was held on November 17. The entertainment was in the form of a talent show, and the prizes went to Lorraine and Shirley Buratti, Betty Bauer and Joyce Agan, and the Co-eds. Later came a Christmas dance held in December.

Early in May we chose Loring Studio as our class photographer, and in that same month, our advisors appointed the committees for the big social event of the year, the Senior Reception. The decorating committee, after many trials and tribulations, finally settled down to the serious work of making the roses and clouds to be used in the "Blue Heaven" scene. Having started to decorate only the day before the Reception, we hardly thought it possible to finish on time. But due to much cooperation and many trips to Lake Archer, we managed to complete the decorations that same day. Thursday night we all turned out in our best "bib" and tucker" and danced to the music of Don Dudley's Orchestra. As the night slipped by, we realized that in September we would take over the respected position of Seniors.

At our last election of officers, Warren Reed was chosen president; Stan Bryant, vice president; Mickey Morini, secretary; and Patty Whitehouse, treasurer. On Thanksgiving night, we presented the annual Turkey Day dance in the Foxboro High School Gym. The newly formed Varsity Club sponsored a Record Hop on January 12, with Fred B. Cole, WHDH disc jockey, spinning the records.

The Senior Class observed Good Government Day on February 6. There was active campaigning by the various candidates for the positions of selectman and school committee. When these officials were elected, the Selectmen appointed the town manager and town officials, and the School Committee appointed the teachers. After the students had been conducted on a tour of the town, they took over their official duties. The Central Fire Station was probably the most active place in town when the Selectmen challenged the School Committee to a game of pool. We never found out who really won, but a good time was had by all.

On February 14 and 15, we presented our class play, "The Little Dog Laughed," under the direction of Miss Nancy Halverson. After the play, the Seniors enjoyed a party given by Barbara Howe in honor of the occasion.

An attempt was made to demolish the high school by our scientist (???) Lenny Risgin, but he succeeded in injuring himself rather than the building.

Top honors were announced early in March. Mickey Morini was awarded the D. A. R. Good Citizenship award. Later the class colors, royal blue and silver, and the class flower, a red rose, and the motto were chosen.

As the year drew to a close, two hilarious events took place. One was Tramp Day, filled with the usual silly events during which more than one hobo managed to get "in Dutch." The dance, however, was one of the social successes of our four year stay at the high school. Shortly after this rowdy event, Bow Day was observed. The girls wore colorful and fancy bows, and even the boys adorned their curls with dainty ribbons of bright hues. "Cute" was the word for the day.

These events—with Baccalaureate Sunday, June 15; Class Day, June 16; Graduation, June 17; and the Senior Reception, June 19—bring to a close our high school days.

It has been with great pleasure that I have assembled the facts for this history of the Class of 1952, for it has brought back vividly the happy experiences that we have shared in the past four years. It is with sincere regret that we leave M. H. S., but we are grateful that we can take with us so many cherished memories.

Class Will

by
CATHERINE REGO

We, the graduating class of 1952, hereby departing from this pit of knowledge, in deep sorrow and overwhelming joy, do make and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all previous wills drawn up by us.

To Mr. Anderson we leave a book entitled "Solving the Problem of Crowded Schools".

To Dr. Larson we leave our solemn thanks for having put up with us as long as he did.

To the Faculty we leave a Quonset Hut to be used as a teachers' room where they may rest in peace.

To the Juniors we leave an apology because Lenny Risgin failed to blow up the high school. At least he tried!

To the Sophomores we leave the consolation, "Cheer up, you only have two more years to go!"

To the Freshmen we leave one piece of advice, "Get out of town before it's too late!"

To George we leave a new broom to sweep up the 63% more dirt by the front door.

Eugene Fournier leaves his blushes to Pauline Jacques, who should really use them.

Rudy Fasulo leaves Janet with no one to cry over.

Joyce Agan wills her "calm, collected manner" to Janet Guild.

Nancy Halloran and Phyllis Wellman leave to make good use of Mrs. Whitmore's lessons in Home Management Class.

Wayne Engler leaves his tattered shirt so that the kids won't have to buy any orange ribbon next year.

Bobby Menga wills a bottle of wave lotion to Ricky O'Malley.

Bob "Hard-worker" Baptiste leaves his position as Property Committee Chairman to some luckless Junior, with the advice, "The cast is always handy at getting furniture."

Janet Cipriani leaves her quiet, unassuming manner to Billy "Loud-Mouth" Leanues.

Stan "Always Late" Bryant leaves an alarm clock to Donny Flynn. May he have better luck than Stan did!

Nelia "Dead-Eye" Pellegrini wills her hook-shot to Lil Goddard.

Billy Shea leaves MHS to join all other "petunias and posies."

Betty Ward leaves her "charming" giggle to Gloria Kirshkaln.

Carole Lovely leaves her high stature to Carol Briggs.

Lenny Risgin leaves still trying to explain to Miss Hannon why his themes are late.

Carol Nelson leaves her high marks to next year's basketball team.

Billy Kirshkaln leaves Betty and Herbie alone at last!

David Holt leaves broken-hearted, but determined that Peggy has two-timed for the last time.

Binky Anderson wills his baseball arm to Sonny Guerrini, in hopes that he'll make good use of it next year.

Warren Briggs leaves his title as "President of the Auto Wreckers' Association" to Pete Richardson, who has really earned it.

Johnny DePalma leaves his tape recorder to liven up next year's P. J. parties.

Gloria Dunn leaves her spacious Buick to Wally "I like 'em pint sized" Hewes.

Andy Morrison leaves her air consciousness to Eddie Garriepy.

Mickey Morini leaves her wonderful personality and cheering ability to Rosemarie DeLutis.

Johnny Houghton wills his seat in detention class to Billy Eastman.

Vera Gross leaves her little red truck to replace the discontinued Mansfield to Foxboro Bus.

Marcia "Red" Richardson leaves a book entitled, "The Art of Dyeing Hair" to Loanne Giles.

Tivie Patrignani leaves a pillow to Miss Henchel for the "petite" drivers of next year.

Russ "Casanova" Spaulding leaves his long list of phone-numbers to Red "Lover-Boy" Purrier.

Dick Albertini leaves his ability in art to the desk scribblers in the Study Halls.

Barbie Howe bequeaths to Mrs. "Whit" a pane of glass for the one she wore out gazing at Sarkis' T. V. Shop.

Joan Annese leaves her position at the bank to anyone who wants to skip the last period every day.

Evelyn Austin leaves her excess poundage to Norma Devine, who really doesn't need it.

Betty Giles leaves to become chief hostess at the Rose Garden.

Barbara Barrett leaves her acting ability to any girl in the Junior Class who thinks she can do as well in the Class Play.

Warren Reed leaves his position as Class President to Michael Wilde. May he have as much success as Warren has had!

Phyllis Tartaglia leaves MHS to put her three years of French to good use.

Lorraine Reilly leaves behind an example of the well Taylor-ed look.

Patty Whitehouse leaves her witty remarks to Naureen Shea, who could probably add a few of her own.

Joan Murphy leaves a carpet sweeper and thermometer to the mother in next year's Class Play.

Earl Mason leaves to "landscape". Our advice is to be sure he works on the right items.

Dick Leavitt leaves MHS without an amateur radio "ham"!

Ellie Jackson, leaving MHS, plans a future in "Dustin."

Jimmy Horton leaves his "happy" disposition to Jimmy Fernandes.

Betty Conrod leaves Herbie alone in the first floor corridor every afternoon from 2:15 to 4:00.

Shirlie "Pin-Up" Buratti leaves a book of her escapades to Sandra Murphy, to cheer her up on lonely nights.

Gloria Martin leaves her willingness to cooperate in every way to Fred Delfino. We hope he benefits by this heritage.

Caroline Miller leaves her efficient manner of getting everything done in a "hurry" to Rose Mary Delfino.

Jimmy Breen leaves his knack of skipping last period study to Kevin Jackson.

Jeannie Palanza leaves her snappy hair-dos to Janet Fasulo.

Janet Baer leaves MHS on tiptoe.

Betty "Floor it,—here comes a pedestrian" Bauer leaves her driving ability to next year's Drivers Ed Class.

Dick Hanlon leaves MHS for Spain where he can get paid for "throwing the bull".

Jean Morse leaves her ability to assist in the office to Patty Paine.

Link Musto leaves Miss Hannon a bottle of Anacin in hopes that it will somewhat pay for the headaches he has caused her.

Pat Murphy leaves right behind Link,—as usual!

Shelia Rooney leaves her sweater to June Clark.

Lucille Tessier leaves her beautiful complexion and gracious manners to Barbara Mei. She can well use the latter.

Jerry Sheehan leaves his prize for the best Crew-Cut to "Fessie" Olney.

Pauline Reynolds leaves the reputation of being well-dressed to Patty Fornaciari.

Willy Bruno leaves his crutches to next year's football team.

Joyce Nordberg leaves MHS following a "Ray" of sunshine.

As for myself, I leave, before my friendly classmates prove otherwise.

In witness thereof, we, the class of 1952 of Mansfield High School, hereby set our hand and seal to this, our last will and testament, on this sixteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

Class Prophecy

by

Joyce Nordberg

Good evening ladies and gentlemen. I have just returned from the ten year reunion of the Class of 1952 of Mansfield High. As news commentator of the area I was assigned to cover the meeting. As a former member of the class, I was eager to do so.

Early this morning Ada Ann Morrison, who still has her mind up in the sky, flew in from the Philippines to attend the reunion. Quite a few of my classmates still live in Mansfield. James Horton, the First National's keenest competitor propels his push-cart from street to street. Richard Hanlon repairs all the flat tires in the neighborhood, for he owns a bubble gum factory. Betty Giles and Richard Albertini have formed a painting and decorating partnership. He trims the outside while she takes care of the inside—of squirrels' nests. Patty Whitehouse, still a telephone operator, as a sideline, writes a monthly magazine column called "Buzzing Wires".

Of course, the high school is still standing, but it is more crowded than ever. Pauline Reynolds has the supply company running in circles, for she needs raincoats and plastic books for her classes on the roof. Gloria Dunn, one of the most popular teachers, conducts a class entitled "How to Chew Gum Without Getting Caught." Joyce Agan and Carl Anderson train the would-be athletes of MHS.

Lorraine Reilly owns her own sporting goods store with Huck Shaw as her assistant. Jean Morse has also entered the field of free enterprise. Her drug store, "Lolly's," is the favorite gathering place for today's teenagers. Wilbur Sheehan works here too. He really cleans up—sweeping floors.

Eleanore Jackson, Nancy Halloran, Phyllis Wellman and Janet Baer live side by side on Mammel Lane, proving that life is just a bunch of "wails." Mama!

Many of my classmates are quite famous in Boston. Marcia Richardson's pictures are on all the bill boards. Her latest hair style "The Zebra," is popular everywhere. Sheila Rooney is wearing stripes too—prison stripes. It seems that one night she had on one less balloon than the laws of sober Boston permitted. Billy Kirshkaln, gatekeeper at Charleston Prison, let her in.

Warren Reed owns a new store in Boston called Jordan-Reed. Nelia Pellegrini and Evelyn Austin are his private secretaries. Evelyn's quiet nature tends to calm Nelia's exuberance. Barbara Barrett works at the large soda fountain where there are more "jerks" than any where else.

Another member of the class who also works at Jordan-Reed's is Rudy Fasulo, who as a window decorator, has a wonderful time with his models.

Barbara Howe, famous fashion designer, created many exotic costumes, especially for Halloween parties. Lucille Tessier, her former business manager, made so much money that she was able to retire.

Betty Bauer, voted hot rod driver of the class of '52, now teaches rookie policemen how to drive with one arm. Jimmy Breen, taxi driver, has revolutionized driving. Instead of dodging around cars and creating a traffic jam, he just drives over the cars in his way.

I found many of my former classmates in the field of entertainment. Joan Murphy is a leading actress on Broadway. Today, however, she never misplaces her costumes. Richard Leavitt has replaced silent Erwin on the Boston Ballroom. In spite of his regular job, however, he is still a "ham." Robert Baptiste, with his guitar and songs, is the "Jumpalong Cassidy" for today's kiddies. He considers horses old-fashioned, so he uses a pogo stick. Wayne Engler has taken Red Skelton's place on television. The main feature of his program is that part called "Don Wongo's Doosey Dohickeys." He has hired Betty Ward, the professional giggler, to sit in the audience and make sure his jokes get a laugh. Willy Bruno, as you may well imagine, has moved out to Hollywood, where he has just finished a movie entitled "Mansfield Shoe Shine Boy." Phyllis Tartaglia, a famous prima donna, sings all her songs in French—straight from Pratt Street. John DePalma owns the Park Theater. His ushers don't use flashlights, but do use the back row seats in the balcony.

In the world of business, Earl Mason runs a landscaping company. He has just redesigned a whole city—Antville. Jean Palanza digs all his holes for him. She always did like the underground.

Caroline Miller works in a clock factory where she always arrives on time. Joan Annese, district manager of the Federal Reserve Bank down in Washington, loans money to the R. F. C. Pat Murphy, her secretary, was hired because her experience as a telephone operator taught her not to spread private affairs.

Eugene Fournier is confident that he will never lose his job as grave digger. "We all have to go sometime!", he says. Lincoln Musto has a flourishing poultry farm. He likes this business,—Seems he's used to the pecking. Betty Conrod, thanks to certain connections, has opened up a reducing establishment. Her motto is "Lift Weight, Lose Pounds." Vera Gross, her chief masseuse, literally makes the patrons laugh off the excess poundage.

Linard Risgin is a famous scientist noted for blowing the roof off things. Mickey Morini, a competent nurse, has her office on the floor below his laboratory. Janet Cipriani's office is on the floor beneath that one. She insures the people who want to go upstairs. Carole Lovely is a frequent visitor to the laboratory. In fact, she comes everyday. She is the city fireman.

Admiral Warren Briggs is contesting General Eisenhower's campaign for the presidency. Using his political know-how, he's sure to win. Carol Nelson, a leading journalist, is his unofficial campaign manager. Bill Shea is keeping up Navy tradition with a girl in every port. Russell Spaulding, also in the service of his country, lectures at West Point on "How to Act on Passes." Also in this man's army we find Robert Menga who has made his musical ability pay off. He receives $75 a month for waking the bugler every morning.

Tivie Patrignani is still talking. Her bubbling enthusiam sells even the stalest product for the company she works for. Cathy Rego, out in Texas, has at last learned to saddle her own horse. Shirlie Buratti has moved too. As wife of the Seabee Admiral of Pamfa Fleet, she is an honored guest at all the ship launchings in California. However, she doesn't waste the champagne. She spreads a special container to catch what spills. Her parties are noted for miles around.

Some members of the class were missing from the reunion. However, they sent their regrets. Stan Bryant couldn't leave Arabia just now. "Business" detained him. Could that business be third person, feminine, plural? Dave Holt is also in Arabia. He has just found a new oil field. What a slippery character! An epidemic in Africa prevented Gloria Martin, missionary-nurse there, from attending. John Houghton fell asleep on his way up from Mexico. His burro stopped under the nearest tree so Johnny wouldn't get tired.

As for myself, I am a radio commentator living on a moderate pay and in daily fear of the censors. Knowing my classmates, I feel sure that they will succeed in whatever field they choose to work and will have a great deal of fun doing so.

In making life worthwhile
Costs the least and does the most
Is . . . just a smile.
